

6516205142.txt

Dear FCC.I use the weather and traffic channels daily. These channes help provide information in these areas constantly. Regular radio stations only transmit at their convience or when there is severe weather alert. I choose XM radio because they provide me with music, weather, news, and traffic information that regular stations don't provide in a timely manor. I choose to pay for these services, therefore XM should have the right to transmit them.